INTRICON MOVES TO THE NASDAQ STOCK MARKET

ST. PAUL, Minn. — Dec. 17, 2007 — IntriCon Corporation (AMEX: IIN), a designer, developer, manufacturer and distributor of body-worn medical and electronics devices, today announced that its board of directors has approved the decision to switch the listing of its common stock from the American Stock Exchange to The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC®. The change is expected to be effective as of the opening of trading on Jan. 2, 2008. The company's ticker symbol will remain the same: IIN.

“Our decision to move to NASDAQ was reached after careful consideration of capital market alternatives and analysis of the electronic market model, which provides added visibility to our investors,” said Mark S. Gorder, president and chief executive officer of IntriCon. “We believe that NASDAQ's electronic multiple market maker structure will give our company enhanced exposure and liquidity, while at the same time offer investors the best prices, fastest execution and lowest cost per trade.”

On October 24, 2007, IntriCon reported third-quarter and nine-month results. For the third quarter, net sales were $18.4 million, a 48 percent increase from net sales of $12.5 million for the 2006 third quarter. IntriCon delivered third-quarter net income of $650,000, or $0.12 per diluted share, up 48 percent from net income of $438,000, or $0.08 per diluted share, for the 2006 third quarter. For the nine-month period, the company reported net sales of $50.0 million and net income of $1.2 million, or $0.22 per diluted share. This compares to 2006 nine-month sales of $37.5 million and net income of $719,000, or $0.14 per diluted share, from continuing operations.

NASDAQ® is the largest U.S. electronic stock market. With approximately 3,200 companies, it lists more companies and, on average, its systems trade more shares per day than any other U.S. market. NASDAQ is home to companies that are leaders across all areas of business including technology, retail, communications, financial services, transportation, media and biotechnology. NASDAQ is the primary market for trading NASDAQ-listed stocks.
