

Injection Molding Technician

Duties and Responsibilities:

Sets-up injection molds and auxiliary equipment. Monitors production for adherence to quality standards. Reports daily production results and assists with replenishing stock materials. Creates maintenance work orders for mold and equipment issues. Performs lot changes, line clearances, and maintains production schedule. Sets-up, tests, and documents new tools and materials. Provides technical leadership. Monitors safety practices and housekeeping. Interacts with other departments to resolve problems that interfere with productivity. Trains new and less experienced operators. Possesses a good understanding of manufacturing operations and related processes.

Other duties may be assigned.

High school diploma or equivalent preferred. 5+ years of directly related production experience.

Job Type: Full-time

Experience: Plastic Injection Molding: 5 years (Preferred)

Click here to apply